

Please do not expand the Low Power FM system to take priority over FM. I pay to support KLOVE, my local FM radio station, and do not want to lose it. This is an established station with affiliates across the nation, and many people pay to support their great music and upbeat attitude. They also are a clean station, with a great moral standing that families can listen to without worrying about kids or teens hearing objectionable material.